

Corporate Services

Who we are

At Eden Brown Synergy, we're proud to be the recruitment partner of choice for over 190 government authorities, NHS trusts, third sector charities, housing associations and further education establishments nationwide.

As one of the longest established public sector and not-for-profit recruitment consultancies in the UK, we understand these sectors inside and out. Our dedicated consultants work closely with clients to identify individual needs and deliver tailored recruitment solutions across a range of contract types including permanent, temporary, FTC, temporary-to-permanent and service delivery.

What we offer

Our Corporate Services division specialises in:

- Finance
- Human Resources
- Procurement
- Project, Programme & Transformation
- Audit
- Information Governance
- Policy, Economics & Regulatory
- Marketing & Communications
- IT & Informatics

What sets us apart?

Over 50 years' public sector and not-for-profit experience across the Corporate Services division, enabling us to deliver solutions in the most efficient and cost-effective way for your organisation

Dedicated sub-teams within Corporate Services, who specialise in their own key areas

Access to a nationwide pool of talent managed by a separate Candidate Delivery team who focus purely on the sourcing and maintenance of candidates suited to our clients' needs

An in-house Compliance Unit who are committed to thoroughly completing stringent public sector framework checks, which, in turn:

1. Provides our clients with the peace of mind they are seeking from a quality assurance and risk management point of view
2. Reduces the period between offer stage and start date

What our clients say

Sam is a professional and a great listener. She carefully qualifies your requirements to ensure that all recommended candidates are suitable. Highly recommended.”

London Procurement
Partnership

It was fantastic to have Charlotte’s support in recruiting for this role. She makes it her priority to understand not just the job, but the surrounding context and culture so that she can ensure it’s not just a skill fit, but a whole person fit. Charlotte has a deep understanding of the OD space...I always felt like she had our organisation’s best interests at heart and couldn’t fault the customer journey.”
